

People with Profound and Multiple Learning Disabilities

- We have put together some guidelines to help services to involve people with profound and multiple learning disabilities
- We have looked at the Mencap Involve Me project
- We have put a plan together to help services use the guidelines

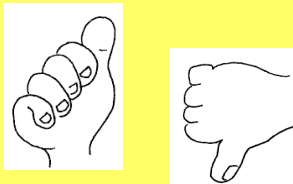

Making sure people with profound and multiple learning disabilities are listened to

Make sure we know the best ways of communicating with people.
We can use communication passports to help us with this.

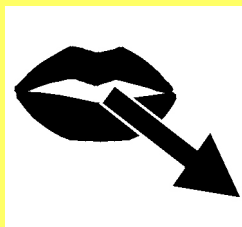

Train people so that they are good at communicating with people with profound and multiple learning disabilities

Build up a record of things that people like and things that they don't like

Make sure services use the information about what is important to people with profound and multiple learning disabilities

Make sure services tell people what they have done

Building the Views of People with Profound and Multiple Learning Disabilities into Service Planning and Commissioning
